

MADGREEKRACING

I built MadGreekRacing.com as a gift and digital home base for my dad's racing team. It's a simple but fully functional site with an About page, Contact form, and even a mock Merch Store—designed so he could start sharing builds, stories, and maybe even sell some shirts or stickers down the line.

The project reflects our shared love for fast cars, long nights in the garage, and figuring it out ourselves. Mad Greek Racing finally lives online.

Mad Greek Racing is a budget endurance racing team built around a BMW E46 wagon and a committed crew that lives for the track. Running #46, we prove that passion and dedication can turn a modest wagon into a competitive force.
